ROUND 7
CROYDON
TUESDAY 2 JUNE 19:30

Britain's top professional cyclists and The Pearl Izumi Tour Series, the UK's leading cycle race series, will take to the streets of Croydon for the first time in its history on Tuesday 2 June; followed by another London-based round hosted by the iconic Canary Wharf on Thursday 4 June.

Featuring the third round of the women's Matrix Fitness Grand Prix, racing will start 17:30 with the Britain's elite female riders tearing around the closed-road circuit for up to an hour, all looking to make their mark on a new edition to the series.

The seventh round of the Pearl Izumi Tour Series will commence shortly after, with ten of the UK's top male teams lining up on the start line at 19:30. After a fast and furious hour of racing the round winner and series leaders will collect their awards during the official podium ceremony taking place at 20:45.

Defending champions JLT Condor will return to the series led by double Olympic medallist Ed Clancy, looking to retain the title of Britain's Fastest Team in 2015. The new look Team WIGGINS, created and owned by Sir Bradley Wiggins will bring the GB Team Pursuit track superstars to the streets of the UK on their road to glory for Rio 2016. Returning to the series as strong contenders are the likes of Raleigh GAC, Madison Genesis and the boys in black NFTO.

Olympic prowess will also feature in the Matrix Fitness Grand Prix with the likes of Dame Sarah Storey, Joanna Rowsell and Katie Archibald all members of Peal Izumi Sports Tours International, being pitted against a strengthened Wiggle Honda team with Dani King and returning Series Champion Eileen Roe also likely to feature. Olympic heroine, Laura Trott will also roll out with her new team mates riding for Matrix Pro Cycling.
